

Allow free competition to dictate the market. Allow people to vote with their dollars. Not everything needs Legislation. If established dollars had always been allowed to stifle new ideas, we'd still be on typewriters and horses.